Ready for What's Next: Innovation, Resilience, and the Future of Housing Stability

Who We Are

Introducing our organization

Corporation for Supportive Housing (CSH) is a national nonprofit, founded in 1991, dedicated to ending chronic homelessness by advancing affordable housing paired with supportive services. We believe housing is more than shelter—it is the foundation for health, stability, and opportunity.

CSH drives impact by shaping public policy, investing capital, and strengthening the supportive housing field nationwide—helping communities create scalable, lasting solutions for people with complex needs.

- National reach supporting 350+ communities across 48 states
- Proven scale helped create 512,500+ affordable and supportive housing units nationwide
- Catalytic investment deployed $2.2B+ in capital to strengthen communities and systems
- Unique role as the only U.S. Community Development Financial Institution exclusively focused on supportive housing
