

The Supportive Housing Institute: Opening New Doors

Opening New Doors would not be a success without experts in their fields sharing their knowledge and their real life experiences. CSH is grateful for their willingness to aid in the creation of supportive housing projects to help communities prevent and end homelessness.

- Anthony Penn, Chief Operating Officer, Community Housing Network: engaging the community
- Bill Willis, Willis Law Firm: legal issues in supportive housing
- Sheriff Dave Phalen, Fairfield County: safety and security
- George Berardi, Berardi Partners: design to meet tenant and community needs
- Dr. Greg Emanuelson, SAMI Program Director, Crisis Intervention and Recovery: engagement strategies and motivational interviewing
- Irma Poe, Senior Program Manager, CSH-CA: Property Management
- James Kennelly, VISN 10 Network Homeless Coordinator: working with the Veterans Administration
- Joe Maskovyak, Attorney, Ohio State Legal Services: legal issues in supportive housing
- John Peterson, Senior Program Manager, CSH-MI: financing supportive housing
- John Picard, Architect: how to work with architects
- Keith McCormish, President, Public Service Consulting: engagement strategies and motivational interviewing
- Maureen Callahan, Property Manager, National Church Residences: property management and leasing
- Mike Tynan, Director of Housing Services of Community Housing Network: engagement strategies and motivational interviewing
- Rachel Fuller, Senior Program Manager, CSH-OH; service planning
- Sally Luken, Director, CSH-OH; service budgeting
- Ted Jones, Senior Program Manager, CSH-OH: financing supportive housing
- Toni DiBlasi, Chief of Asset Management, Ohio Capital Corporation for Housing: asset management

- Wil Spinner, Director of Supportive Services, National Church Residences: property management and leasing